CHARLOTTE'S WEB (1973)

Directed by Iwao Takamoto & Charles August Nichols

E.B. White's beloved children's tale is brought to life in this animated film, which finds the young farm pig Wilbur (Henry Gibson) attempting to avoid a dire fate. Of all the barnyard creatures, Wilbur's staunchest ally is Charlotte (Debbie Reynolds), a thoughtful spider who devises an intriguing plan to keep the gentle little swine out of the slaughterhouse. Although Charlotte's efforts, which involve words written in her delicate web, seem far-fetched, they may just work.

SUNDAY, JULY 14 at 3pm

MRS. DOUBTFIRE (1993)

Directed by Chris Columbus

"Mrs. Doubtfire" is a heartwarming comedy about Daniel Hillard, a struggling actor who transforms into Mrs. Doubtfire, a charming Scottish nanny, to spend time with his children after a difficult divorce. Played by Robin Williams, Daniel's ruse starts as a comedic effort to stay close to his kids but evolves into a touching journey of self-discovery and family reconnection. This beloved film explores the lengths a father will go to for the love of his children.

THE PINK PANTHER (1963)

Directed by Blake Edwards

Classic comedy featuring Inspector Jacques Clouseau, played by Peter Sellers, who clumsily pursues a suave jewel thief targeting the priceless Pink Panther diamond. The film blends slapstick and wit, unfolding amid glamorous European settings and leading to a series of comedic misadventures. This iconic film initiated the popular "Pink Panther" series, known for its animated sequences and memorable theme music by Henry Mancini.
