CHATHAM COUNTY LINE

Launched a little more than twenty years ago in Raleigh, North Carolina, Chatham County Line built a devoted local following on the strength of their genre-bending live show—an intoxicating blend of bluegrass, folk, country, and rock and roll.

Saturday, May 3 | Doors: 7pm | Show: 8pm

An Evening with HISS GOLDEN MESSENGER

Join Hiss Golden Messenger for a special evening benefiting the Me Fine Foundation. Me Fine serves families with children in medical crisis at local children's hospitals, by providing hope through help with life's expenses and emotional support programs. A portion of proceeds go toward Me Fine's mission.

GEORGE HUNTLEY BAND

the VANGUARD

GEORGE HUNTLEY W/ THE VANGUARD

Get ready for an unforgettable evening of hooks, harmony and high-octane fun with the George Huntley Band and The Vanguard. Both groups bring dynamic musicianship and infectious energy to their sets, delivering power pop and indie sounds that reignite the magic of rock's heyday. This special double-header showcases artists with deep roots in Raleigh and a passion for entertaining hometown audiences.

Saturday, May 10 | Doors: 7pm | Show: 8pm

PETER LAMB & THE WOLVES w/ SIDECAR SOCIAL CLUB

If you've ever found yourself in a club wondering, "Is this the Star Wars theme song arranged as a jazz piece?" you've had your first taste of Peter Lamb and the Wolves.

Friday, May 16 | Doors: 7pm | Show: 8pm

KAKI KING

Dubbed by Rolling Stone as "a genre unto herself," Brooklyn, NY-based Kaki King has proven to be just that. Her career has taken her all over the world, sharing stages with Dave Grohl of Foo Fighters, contributing music to award-winning films (Sean Penn's Into The Wild), and performing at the Kennedy Center, the London Jazz Festival, and the Paris Les Femmes s'en Melent.

Saturday, May 17 | Doors: 7pm | Show: 8pm

JOE PUG

A singer-songwriter known for his lyrical acumen and plaintive harmonica style, Joe Pug dropped out of college and moved to Chicago where he worked as a carpenter before breaking into the city's music scene. Since 2008 he has released a string of critically-acclaimed albums and toured heavily in the U.S. and abroad. Paste Magazine wrote of his music: "Unless your surname is Dylan, Waits, Ritter or Prine, you could face-palm yourself to death trying to pen songs half as inspired."

Wednesday, May 21 | Doors: 6pm | Show: 6:30pm

NORTH CAROLINA VOTER PROJECT

The North Carolina Voter Project presents its Speaker Series: Faith & Democracy, a discussion of the intersection between the two and how we move forward. Tim Tyson and the Reverend Elijah McDavid will speak, and the event will also feature a musical performance by gospel singer, historian, and educator Mary D. Williams.
